

The Northwest Film Archives present

Two Days With Doris

Celebrating Doris Day's 70th Birthday

June 18th at 4.00 PM

"The Tunnel Of Love" (MGM 1958)

Directed by Gene Kelly, with Richard Widmark, 98 Min.

"The Glass Bottom Boat" (MGM 1966)

Directed by Frank Tashlin, with Rod Taylor, 110 Min.

June 19th at 4.00 PM

"My Dream Is Yours" (Warner Bros. 1949)

Directed by Michael Curtiz, with Jack Carson, 101 Min.

"Lucky Me" (Warner Bros. 1954)

Directed by Jack Donohue, with Robert Cummings, 100 Min.

Full supporting programme available, with a specially arranged Doris Day-Exhibition, Doris Day-Songs and more.

For each day an entrance fee of 15 Swiss Francs will be charged, or get both days for only 25.- . A part of the amount covers snacks and drinks to be served, the other part will be donated to Doris Day's Pet Foundation. Please reserve your seats as early as possible, reservations are taken by phone (Day-By-Day-Hotline 813-6850) or by letter.

A Northwest Film Archives Presentation
Eric P.A. Langner Schützenmattstr. 5 8302 Kloten